

For immediate Posting:

Affinity Insurance is a leading Toronto based insurance broker. We specialize in the design and procurement of insurance programs for industry associations, franchises, affinity groups and niche classes of business.

Our Commercial and Private Client Care divisions, round out our product offering, providing only the highest level of service and independent advice.

This posting is for the newly created position of: Program Account Manager

The successful candidate will manage two long standing associations in the downtown core and procure a newly launched professional liability product to their member base.

Duties include; taking applications over the phone, submitting applications to our Lloyds of London syndicate, confirming pricing and arranging premium finance contracts, taking calls and answering questions regarding the need for errors and omissions insurance, tallying monthly results and submitting board sheet to London, England.

We are currently looking for an enthusiast individual who is looking for a spring board in which to enter the sales arena.

Requirements:

- Mature and able to work well without supervision
- Must have a RIBO license in good standing.
- Must to able to work from home

Assets:

- Knowledge of personal lines
- Life licensed
- Organizational skills

Note:

The position is a fully commission based with unlimited earning potential. Interested candidates may send resume to don@aibrokers.ca

Vision

To be Canada's leading designer, facilitator and implementer of insurance programs through the use of technology, innovative business models and delivery methods.

"Insure with Certainty"

Values

- Ethics in everything, first and foremost
- To exceed client's expectations through our commitment to service
- To give back to community often and in meaningful ways
- Education & Technology Driven
- Environmentally Conscious
- Work-Family Life Balance

"Insure with Certainty"